Centennial Celebration.

The village of Orleans is to have a birthday party to celebrate the first settlement in this vicinity, one hundred years ago.

Commencing Thursday evening, August 26, and continuing the following three days and evenings the people of Orleans will drop business and hope to welcome and entertain many of the old and new friends of the village as can possibly arrange to be here. On Sunday, the 29th, the churches will arrange for services appropriate to the occasion and the Sunday afternoon and evening meetings and all the addresses and entertainments during the three days and four evenings will probably be held out of doors if the weather permits. It has been suggested that Post-office square be closed except to through traffic, and a stage and seats for probably 2000 people be constructed in this natural amphitheatre.

A continual program of speaking, parades, ball games and other sports, band concerts and entertainments is being arranged for, all on a scale demanded by an event which can only be celebrated once in a hundred years.

There will be a food sale at the vestry of the Congregational church by the Ladies' Aid society on Saturday afternoon.

A special village meeting is called on Monday night at the Opera hall to see how much money the village will appropriate for the centennial celebration.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes

Clarence D. Pierce, Pastor
There will be a union service at this church on Sunday morning at the regular hour for morning worship. The Sunday school will meet in regular session after the morning service.
The evening service will consist of a sacred concert and a brief address. With favorable weather this service will be in the open air at the band stand in Railroad park.
The minister's family and Mrs. Pierce's Sunday school class that were camping at Willoughby lake last week returned Saturday.

R. A. Hamilton, Pastor. Congregational Church Notes

There will be no morning service and no session of the Sunday school the first two Sundays of August. The people of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the services at the Methodist church.
